BUSY AND FUN SUMMER AND FALL AT THE BROWNSBORO FARM POOL AND COMMUNITY CENTER

By Greg Burton

Summer 2009 was a lot of fun for members of the Brownsboro Farm Pool. Fortunately for us, the season was a long one, since Memorial Day was as early as it could be and Labor Day was as late as it could be. The season started with a City Wide Parade, led by Jeff, Marilyn, Emily and Grant Harris and Samantha and Joey Young. The circus themed parade (and whose life around here is NOT a circus?) started at the end of Fallen Timber and progressed through the community to the pool. The pool officially opened when Mayor Josh Mosher reminded us what Memorial Day is really about, then was the first person to jump in freshly filled pool. That evening, City residents were treated to an Adult only Mardi Gras party. Everyone who came really got their Cajun on by contributing an authentic New Orleans dish. What a great bunch of cooks we have here at the Farm! On Memorial Day, the City Wide Family Picnic rocked out to the sounds of LazerLab DJ Service.

The Annual Adult Pool Member Luau was held in June. Special thanks to Susan Burton and Tessa Ramsey for serving up a genuine Hawaiian feast. And what meal would be complete without one of Marianne Page's fantastic cakes? Everyone wore their Hawaiian best, with special honors to Debbie Szypulski, who had just returned from the Islands.

Independence Day was wet, but fun. The Moss-Brown, Glish, Leis, Finaldi and Burton families didn't let an all day down pour dampen their Fourth of July spirit. Special thanks to Lifeguards Samantha Young and Allison Roberts for being good sports and manning the chair in the cold and the rain. Inside, LazerLab provided the dance music for the small, but determined group. After a fireworks show provided by Renee Leis and a movie brought by Helen Glish, "the kids" fell asleep on the Club House couches. A great end to a great day!

For the second year in a row, Marc and Bridgette Salmon treated Adult Pool Members to a Mexican and Caribbean themed Fiesta, complete with sombreros and authentic cocktails. Again, the attendees stepped up and brought authentic and delicious dishes.

The only thing better than a concert is a concert that comes to you! Even better than that, it was FREE! The Farm's own Paige Clippinger brought her band, Turn the Paige poolside for a free concert on an early August afternoon. Special thanks to "roadies" Dave and Cindy Clippinger.

Teen pool members can thank Bob and Cindy Baker for a fun evening by the pool. The annual Teen Party gave the group a chance to socialize (and EAT!).

One of the most anticipated events of the summer is always the Shrimp Boil. As usual, Sandra Blaser, Ron Teaford and Charlie and Judy Spencer did not disappoint. Shrimp, sausage, corn and potatoes were served up Low Country style to the eager guests. The Shrimp Boil always draws the largest crowd and somehow, Sandra, Ron, Charlie and Judy manage to feed everyone and send them home full and satisfied.

Most Thursdays will find Farm residents on the patio for the City Wide Family Night Cookouts. Special thanks to Robert Leis for getting the grills hot and ready. Thursday nights in the summer are always a great time to start the weekend early and catch up with our neighbors.

Labor Day Weekend was late this year, but definitely worth the wait. A special Friday Night Family cook-out was held. On Saturday evening, Adult Pool Members enjoyed a BYOE Corn hole Extravaganza that proved you don't have to spend a lot of money to have fun. Everyone brought their own drinks and a dish to share. On Sunday, Genuine Risk, led by the Farm's own Cherie Branson rocked the crowd for the Labor Day Weekend Family Picnic. It was the first time in 23 years that all of the original members of the band played together. The pool season wound down with a Papa John's "Papa by the Pool" party on Monday.

The Fall proved to be fun, as well. The warm sunny weather allowed many Farm families to enjoy our playground and park. Mary and Tim Quinn outdid themselves this year with the Fall Festival. It was a great event that provided kids and grown ups a fun Saturday evening (and Sunday morning for those who chose to camp out). Great food, a movie, camping, fun activities and for many, the first chance to catch up after the pool closed. What more could we ask for? Mary and Tim barely had time to let the dust settle from the Fall Festival when they hosted the Dinner Club Kick Off Party at their home. Many thanks for all their hard work on both events.

Halloween 2009 was one to remember. This year all of Brownsboro Farm's ghosts, goblins, super heroes, witches, and even condiments (yes, there were catsup and mustard costumes) took to the street for the first Brownsboro Farm Halloween Costume Parade. The large group marched down Old Brownsboro Hill Road, to Cascade to the Community Center for the traditional Trick or Treat Send Off. Thanks to Wendy Medley for providing the scary Parade music and Schancee Finaldi, Lee Ann Dant and Renee Leis for serving the pizza and fending off the hungry mob.

The Holiday Season promises to be fun with the Party with Santa and the Post Holiday Adult Party.

Now, all we need to do is get through the winter months to start the whole thing over for Summer 2010. If you didn't join the pool in 2009, make sure to sign up for the 2010 season. As we always say; "DON'T MISS THE FUN!"
